

RESOLUTION REGARDING ACCESS TO ABORTION IN NORTH CAROLINA

In faithful witness to our communal discernment in the ELCA Social Statement on Abortion, <https://elca.org/Faith/Faith-and-Society/Social-Statements/Abortion>, adopted in 1991 and summarized in Bishop Eaton’s June 24, 2022 message, https://www.elca.org/News-and-Events/8158?\_ga=2.30027452.224583663.1675437363-1733743249.1659450466, we urge the North Carolina Synod of the ELCA to adopt the following resolution

WHEREAS, the decision of the US Supreme Court in Dobbs v/ Jackson Women’s Health Organization (2022) assigns the regulation of access to abortion to state law; and

WHEREAS, recent action by the NC General Assembly repealed N.C. Gen. Stat. § 14-45.1 defining unlawful abortions in North Carolina and enacted N.C Gen. Stat. Ch. 90, Art. II making it unlawful to advise, procure, or cause a miscarriage or abortion after the 12th week of a woman’s pregnancy, except in certain exceptional circumstances defined in the statute; and

WHEREAS, about one in four (24%) women will have an abortion by age 45 (Am J Public Health. 2017;107:1904–1909); and

WHEREAS, the ELCA Social Statement on Abortion provides the moral framework for its synods’ and churches’ communal discernment and ministry and

WHEREAS, the ELCA Social Statement on Abortion holds in tension both the strong Christian presumption to preserve and protect all life, as well as the complex moral situations in which pregnancy sometimes occurs, (p.2- page numbers refer to Social Statement);” and

WHEREAS, the ELCA Social Statement on Abortion teaches that “the number of induced abortions is a source of deep concern” but that the access to abortion should be legal (pp. 3, 9-10); and

WHEREAS, the ELCA Social Statement on Abortion recognizes that pregnant persons have moral agency; and that the pregnant person is the one to make decisions about their pregnancy (pp. 5-6); and

WHEREAS, the ELCA Social Statement on Abortion does not support abortion as a normative form of birth control but rather understands it as necessary in some morally responsible circumstances; and

38 WHEREAS, the ELCA Social Statement on Abortion does not condone late-term abortions except 39 in extreme circumstances, which must be determined by the individual with their medical 40 caregivers (p. 7); and

41
42 WHEREAS, the ELCA Social Statement on Abortion acknowledges that individuals and religious 43 traditions hold divergent viewpoints over when life begins based on the state of scientific 44 knowledge, biblical teachings, religious dogma, and cultural norms, and acknowledges these 45 ethical ambiguities in stating that "the closer the life in the womb comes to full term the more 46 serious such [moral] issues become." (p. 7).

47
48 WHEREAS, ELCA members can respond to and minister in the current situation by:

- 49 • ministering to individuals who seek abortions,
- 50 • advocating for laws that provide free or affordable health care, childcare and education,
- 51 • providing and promoting sex education,
- 52 • continuing to be a community of discernment where thoughtful and diverse perspectives 53 can be shared and heard, and
- 54 • advocating for state laws that provide legal, safe and affordable abortions, and against 55 legislation that would outlaw abortion in all circumstances (p. 9).

56
57 THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that by written statement the North Carolina Synod of the ELCA
58 communicate (with a copy to the Synod web site) with Governor Roy Cooper and The North
59 Carolina General Assembly

- 60 • informing them that recent changes in NC law limiting access to abortion is inconsistent 61 with the teachings of the ELCA and
- 62 • urging them to enact social programs that support those who choose to carry 63 pregnancies to term, ensuring that new parents and children of all socioeconomic 64 backgrounds have the resources necessary to lead prosperous lives.

65
66 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the North Carolina Synod of the ELCA strongly encourages 67 rostered leaders, congregations, campus ministries, and synodically authorized worshipping 68 communities

- 69 • to study the ELCA Social Statement on Abortion and Bishop Easton's June 24, 2022
70 message on the decision of the U.S. Supreme Court in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health 71 Organization (2022),
- 72 • to engage in dialog around this topic, and

73 to pray and advocate for just and compassionate treatment of those facing unintended 74 pregnancies and pregnancies that pose a serious risk to the pregnant person's health or result 75 in severe fetal abnormalities.
